

ARTS UMBRELLA

OUR VISION

We envision a better world where all young lives embrace a lifelong journey towards self-expression and humanity.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to deliver profound life experiences through arts education that inspire young people to live creative, authentic, and courageous lives.

Arts Umbrella acknowledges that its work takes place on the unceded, traditional, and ancestral territories of the Semiahmoo, Katzie, and Kwantlen peoples at its Surrey locations and in Vancouver on the unceded, traditional, and ancestral territories of the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw (Squamish), and səliłwətaʔ (Tsleil-Waututh) peoples.

Arts Umbrella is a registered charity.

Creativity, Energy, and Purpose

Credit: Devan Francis

At Arts Umbrella, we believe that an arts education makes a difference in the lives of young people, providing them with the building blocks for life: self-confidence, self-discipline, and creative expression. Whether a young person joins us for a first adventure in the arts or to pursue professional training in their art practice, they find a community bustling with creativity, energy, and purpose. April 2022 marked the completion of our first full year in our new building on Granville Island. The move significantly enhanced the opportunities and possibilities available at every level of instruction across disciplines, and allowed Arts Umbrella to bring the community back in to utilize our spaces for hosting rehearsals, performances, accessible Community Programs, and more.

As a non-profit charitable organization, Arts Umbrella continues to deliver on its mission through the power of community, providing not just an arts education, but space for all young people to grow as world-conscious human beings. Part of that growth is a deepened commitment by the organization to equity, diversity, inclusion, accessibility, climate change action, and the ongoing process of Truth and Reconciliation. Arts Umbrella knows the wealth of opportunity that diversity of experience holds and the critical role that genuine creative self-expression plays in revealing that potential.

Heightened philanthropy from our incredible community of donors and funders has been essential to Arts Umbrella's continued success and sustainability through this period of exponential growth. We thank you.

2022 Expressions Festival

2022 marked the first full Expressions Festival in two years, and the first at 1400 Johnston Street. Expressions Festival is Arts Umbrella's annual celebration of learning from the School of Art & Design, the School of Dance, and the Robert M. Ledingham School of Theatre, Music & Film. The community was invited to join the celebrations by attending performances, showcases, and exhibitions.

SCHOOL OF ART & DESIGN

The School of Art & Design took over our Granville Island and South Surrey locations for two weeks in June, covering nearly every wall and surface with colourful creations from Visual Arts students of all ages, including the earliest learners to advanced teens. This stunning exhibition was the culmination and celebration of the work of all our talented Art & Design students. Showing their work in a dedicated, public space gives these young artists an important perspective, confidence, and pride in their artistic accomplishments.

ROBERT M. LEDINGHAM SCHOOL OF THEATRE, MUSIC & FILM

The Robert M. Ledingham School of Theatre, Music & Film took up residence in the Jack and Darlene Poole Theatre from April 29-June 19 – the first time Arts Umbrella Expressions productions have taken place in our own space. For eight weeks, students from our Pre-Professional Theatre Troupes and Yearlong Intensives performed for the public, family, friends, and thousands of other local students, both at Arts Umbrella and at schools across Metro Vancouver.

SCHOOL OF DANCE

Arts Umbrella Dance returned to the stage to delight audiences at the Vancouver Playhouse for Season Finale and Recital. First was Arts Umbrella Dance Company's triumphant return of its Season Finale production in May, titled MOVE, a culmination of three years of exploration and rehearsal. The program featured bold and innovative works created by leading International and Canadian choreographers, including Crystal Pite, Julia Cratchley, Sidi Larbi Cherkaoui, Medhi Walerski, Jera Wolfe, and Fernando Hernando Magadan, among others.

Arts Umbrella Dance's General Program students took the stage from June 8-12 for their annual Recital. Titled as MOVE IN THE CITY, Recital celebrated the accomplishments and achievements of all of our young dancers over the past 10 months for their family and friends. Later in June, Arts Umbrella Dance Company continued on to Amsterdam, Rotterdam, and The Hague for their 2022 European Tour. Performance stops included The Hague's Julidans Festival and Amsterdam University of the Arts' year-end festival, culminating in a performance of Crystal Pite's The Seasons' Canon with The Dutch National Ballet Academy at Amsterdam's opera house, accompanied by live orchestra.

Thank you to the 2021/2022 Dance Parent Committee: Eve Aymong, Janice Hall, Claudia Krebs, Tanya McMillan, Mindy Parfitt, Angie Poutissou, Lisa Sundstrom, and Katherine Wreford.

International Summer Dance Intensive 2022

The world returned to Arts Umbrella in August for Arts Umbrella Dance's annual International Summer Dance Intensive, with 160 dancers, ages 12 to 22, arriving to train for three intensive weeks under world-renowned teachers, choreographers, and repetiteurs.

Dancers were encouraged to spend their intensive experience challenging themselves to expand their ideas about what dance is and fully immersing themselves in the experience of what it means to be in a professional dance environment. Repertoire included works by renowned choreographers Johan Inger, Crystal Pite, and Jiří Kylián.

Approximately 30 percent of attending students were international, coming to Arts Umbrella from the U.S., Taiwan, Australia, France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Switzerland, the Netherlands, and Japan. Led by Arts Umbrella Dance's Artistic Director Artemis Gordon, the 2022 faculty included Gioconda Barbuto, Donna Krasnow, Risa Steinberg, Rena Narumi, Yvan Dubreuil, Anna Herrmann, Francisco Martinez, and Tom Weinberger, among many others.

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

September 30, 2021 marked the first national observance of National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, a day meant to honour survivors of Canada's Residential School system, their families, and communities, and ensure that public commemoration remains a vital component of the reconciliation process.

In partnership with The Fulmer Foundation, along with Massy Books, Vancouver Writers Fest, and Non-Fiction Design, a full day of programming was prepared at Arts Umbrella's Granville Island and South Surrey locations for students, staff, and guests to participate in age-appropriate activities and talks led by Indigenous artists and knowledge keepers. Special guests included fashion designer Pam (Himikalas) Baker, artist and educator Dana Claxton, author Joseph A. Dandurand, artist James Harry (Nexw'kalus), and author Dallas Hunt. All talks were also live-streamed from the Jack and Darlene Poole Theatre for anyone unable to attend in-person.

A custom orange t-shirt was also designed to honour Orange Shirt Day and sold at Arts Umbrella on September 30. Proceeds from sales were then donated to the Urban Native Youth Association, an organization that offers Indigenous youth, ages 11-24, a safe and welcoming space.

Celebrating 10 Years in Surrey

June 2022 marked a full decade of Arts Umbrella's operations in Surrey. In 2012, Arts Umbrella expanded outside of Metro Vancouver to South Surrey and Surrey Centre. To date, we have served more than 15,000 children and youth from across Surrey, with the majority accessing our programs through bursaries, scholarships, and donor-funded community initiatives in schools, neighbourhood houses, and community centres.

Arts Umbrella was grateful to be featured at the Surrey Board of Trade's Annual General Meeting in June 2022 to celebrate our tenth anniversary. As part of those celebrations, we were proud to acknowledge the many supporters who have helped to make our first decade in Surrey so meaningful. Special recognition was given to Concord Pacific, the City of Surrey, Prospera, and the Surrey Board of Trade, as founding partners.

Donor-Funded Community Programs

For many children, Arts Umbrella is their first encounter with the world of art and creativity. Time and again, studies show that arts education matters and that it provides the building blocks for life: critical thinking skills, improved self-esteem, and tools for collaboration. Our Donor-Funded Community Programs harness our curriculum to bring free-of-charge, high-quality art classes to Metro Vancouver's under-served children and youth. We acknowledge the support of the Province of British Columbia, Connor, Clark & Lunn Foundation, Dakralda Properties, Djavad Mowafaghian Foundation, the Highbury Foundation, and Lohn Foundation helping to deliver these programs.

At Arts Umbrella, we believe that financial, socio-economic, or physical barriers should never prevent anyone from participating in the arts. We are committed to making our programs accessible to as many young people as possible, working with community partners across Metro Vancouver. We partner with the Vancouver School Board, the Surrey School District, as well as various community centres, neighbourhood houses, daycares, and healthcare facilities with a special focus on reaching children and youth in areas that demonstrate high vulnerability. In 2021/2022, Arts Umbrella served 13,862 children and youth at 110 community partner locations.

ACT YOUR ART OUT

Dance, Theatre, Visual Arts |
Ages 9-13

Locations: Elementary schools in
Surrey and Vancouver

Participants: 120

Weekly group instruction in performing and visual arts, aimed at helping students develop creative expression, positive peer connections, and self-confidence. Supported by the City of Surrey, First West Foundation, and the Surrey Fire Fighters Charitable Society, this engaged program is available to priority after-school programs.

BMO VAN GO AND STAGE COACH

Visual Arts and Theatre | Ages 4-12

Locations: Elementary schools in
Surrey and Vancouver

Participants: 3,450

Since 1988, the Van Go and Stage Coach programs have provided free visual arts and theatre workshops, bringing activities and art supplies into local elementary schools. Funded by BMO Financial Group, each class explores a curriculum-relevant topic through theatre games, drawing, and painting. Schools in areas demonstrating high economic, social, and cultural vulnerability risk factors are prioritized, on fair rotation.

COVENANT HOUSE

Visual Arts | Ages 16-24
Location: Covenant House Vancouver
Participants: 8

Partnering with Covenant House, and supported by Jeff Mooney and Suzanne Bolton, this program connects young people who have experienced homelessness with 10 weeks of engaging visual arts classes. Students meet each week with practicing artists, who mentor the students in their creative pursuits. The program concludes with an exhibition of artwork at Arts Umbrella's Cassils | Henriquez Exhibition Gallery.

CREATIVE ARTS

Theatre | Ages 5-19
Locations: BC Children's Hospital and Ronald McDonald House, Vancouver
Participants: 42 at BCCH and 60 at RMH

Delivered in partnership with BC Children's Hospital and the Vancouver School Board, and supported by Stephanie Carlson, the Christopher Foundation and Dave and Pamela Richardson, Arts Umbrella instructors visit BC Children's Hospital once per month at the child psychiatric unit (ages 5-11) and youth psychiatric unit (ages 12-19) to teach various art activities.

We also offer visual art classes at Ronald McDonald House, British Columbia & Yukon. Program participants include children and teens undergoing treatment for conditions such as leukemia, brain tumours, and cystic fibrosis. We gratefully acknowledge the support of Metro Vancouver's Regional Cultural Project Grants program and TD Bank.

DANCE IT OUT

Dance | Ages 5-11
Location: Henderson Annex Elementary, Vancouver
Participants: 150

Fun dance instruction fosters balance, coordination, creative expression, and teamwork, supported by the Deux Mille Foundation. Students learn basic movements in various styles, including contemporary and hip-hop.

ECO THEATRE

Theatre | Ages 8-18

Locations: Vancouver and Burnaby

Number of participants: 75

Schools across the Lower Mainland explore issues such as climate change, endangered species, and the overall health of our planet in this program supported by the McCarthy Tétrault Foundation and the Taylor Taliesin Foundation. Working with a professional theatre artist and Canadian-American playwright Elaine Avila, students craft a collective creation through improvisation and script writing over the course of 10 weeks. The work is then pieced together to create a one-act play performed by Arts Umbrella Pre-Professional Theatre Troupe as part of our Expressions Festival.

HEAD START

Dance, Theatre, and Visual Arts |

Ages 3-5

Locations: Daycares and Pre-Schools in Surrey and Vancouver

Number of participants: 284

Supported by the ARON Foundation, John and Nina Cassils, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP, iA Financial Group, MFS Investment Management, and West Coast Reduction Ltd./Diamond Foundation, Head Start offers young learners broad experiences across artistic disciplines. Through exploring different types of expression, the program supports the children's ability to reach age-appropriate developmental milestones.

NORTHERN ARTS CONNECTION

Theatre and Visual Arts | Ages 4-16

Locations: Remote communities in Northern Ontario, Northern Alberta, Yukon, and Nunavut

Number of participants: 620*

In partnership with Connected North, TakingITGlobal, and Cisco Canada, this distance learning program provides Theatre and Visual Arts programs delivered online to 15 elementary schools across remote communities in Northern Canada.

*Since inception

SUMMER CAMPS 2022

Visual Arts | Ages 5-10

Locations: Arts Umbrella

Number of participants: 10

10 Ukrainian refugee children attended our Summer Camps completely free-of-charge. These young people discovered new artistic passions and enjoyed the summer alongside new peers.

OPEN STAGE

Theatre | Ages 7-12

Locations: Strathcona Community Centre and Queen Alexandra Elementary, Vancouver

Number of participants: 45

A weekly, eight-month program that provides students with a safe environment to learn the basics of theatre, supported by Andrew Mahon Foundation, the Bob and Judy Hager Family Fund, the Geyer Family, the Greygates Foundation, the Pitblado Family Foundation, UBCP/ACTRA and the Windsor Plywood Foundation. Elements of improvisation, movement, clowning, and storytelling give students tools to practice collaboration while enhancing self-confidence and self-expression. Each week, a nutritional snack is provided. At the end of the year, a public performance is held for family and friends.

PACIFIC STORM

Theatre | Ages 13-15
 Location: Britannia Secondary School, Vancouver
 Number of participants: 15

A yearlong theatre arts program, supported by Cadillac Fairview and the Y.P. Heung Foundation, for Britannia Secondary's Grade 10 Social Development Class; a small, protected setting for students with significant social-emotional and executive functioning challenges. Students are exposed to various acting games, exercises, and activities, including improv, mime, stage directions, on-camera work, voice-over, mask work, and clowning. By supporting and relying on each other, students foster a sense of cooperation, awareness, and belonging.

PROSPERA ARTFUL PROGRAMS

Visual Arts | Ages 3-19
 Location: Arts Umbrella Surrey Centre
 Number of participants: 70

Engaging activities help our youngest artists develop imagination and expression, using bright temperas or bold pen and ink. This class runs on a drop-in basis with a minimal $2 fee.

Teens can attend visual arts workshops to develop technical skills, personal forms of expression, critical thinking and conceptual awareness through drawing, painting and mixed media.

Participants can also enroll in moviemaking, exploring the art forms that go into creating a film such as sound, lighting, cinematography, acting, and directing. All Artful Afternoon programs are generously supported by the Prospera Foundation.

SHAW CREATIVE JOURNEYS

Theatre, Visual, and Media Arts | Ages 6-12
 Locations: Elementary schools, Surrey and Vancouver
 Number of participants: 1,548

Supported by Jeff Mooney and Suzanne Bolton and Shaw Communications, this innovative experience explores diversity through theatre, visual, and media arts. In an immersive day of art, students in grades 1-7 develop critical thinking skills, creative expression, and a better understanding of the world they live in.

During this one-day field trip to either our Granville Island or South Surrey facility, students craft artistic interpretations during thematically linked arts classes. Teachers may continue to use Arts Umbrella's Teacher Resource Guides to further the learning and exploration of diversity and inclusion.

THERE'S AN ART FOR THAT

Theatre and Visual Arts | Ages 13-19
 Location: Focus Foundation of BC, Whytecliff Agile Learning Centre, Burnaby
 Number of participants: 8

This weekly program, supported by Coast Capital Savings, provides a fun and safe environment for students to explore the basics of drawing, painting, media arts, and theatre, and help students discover new interests and methods of expressing their own ideas through art.

YWCA HOUSING COMMUNITIES

Dance, Theatre, Visual Arts | Ages 5-14
 Locations: Arts Umbrella
 Number of participants: 18

Working closely with YWCA Housing Communities, single mothers who live at these residences are offered the opportunity to enroll their children in our programs, with support of a full bursary, which are made possible thanks to the generosity of Marily Mearns.

SPLASH ARTIST HIGHLIGHT

Angela Grossmann is a senior visual artist based in Vancouver whose work examines gender and body politics. The artist has exhibited throughout Canada, the United States, Europe and Japan, including most recently three Vancouver Art Gallery exhibitions and a major retrospective at the McMaster Museum of Art. Grossmann's work has been the subject of numerous scholarly articles which speaks to the increasingly relevant narratives that the artist dissects through the media of painting, photography, and décollage. Douglas Coupland describes Grossmann's work as material about "people who have been forgotten but have been preserved somehow. She gives their lives an arc, a trajectory, a mobility, a meaning."
